

Important

The correct and consistent use of the Goal Card is central to A.C.E. procedures and it is well worth the effort insisting on a high standard in their use. The student, who is trained to follow these procedures so that they become a daily habit, has been established in one of the most valuable habits of life; to set goals and to commit oneself to completing them. They have been established in good work habits.